In such circumstances, we are of the opinion that our representation of other clients on such matters shall not hinder or affect our ability to represent the Client to the best of our abilities.

However, we shall deny any new engagements with, or inform the Client of our prior engagement with, any such persons and entities that the Client has identified as a competitor or as likely to be involved in any matter(s) related to the scope of the Firm's services to the Client, thus allowing us to perform adequate screenings of our potential and continuing obligations to our other clients.

Notwithstanding the above, we shall be entitled to represent such other clients when: (i) the scope of our representation of any such client is not substantially related to the scope of the services being provided to the Client; and/or (ii) we have represented such a client in the past, but have not raised an invoice for services rendered to them in the immediately preceding 6 (six) months from the date our representation of the Client has commenced.

Or destroy the same and provide the certificate of destruction as directed by Client. Upon such withdrawal of our services, the Client shall also be obligated to pay any outstanding fees and expenses incurred by us for services rendered up to the date of termination.

Thank you for selecting our Firm to represent you; we look forward to building a mutually rewarding and productive relationship. We are pleased to provide this Engagement Letter to you, and we hope that it meets your requirements and accurately reflects the terms and objectives of our engagement. If you have any questions or concerns in this regard, please do not hesitate to contact us at your convenience. If this arrangement meets with your approval, please indicate your acknowledgement and acceptance by signing and returning the enclosed copy of this letter. You understand and acknowledge that this Engagement Letter, and the attached Terms of Engagement, shall govern our present and future dealings with you, save for when otherwise agreed by us in writing.

However, it may be possible that we continue to be clearly and actively engaged in representing you in the matter(s) contained in the scope of work (or as mutually determined by you and the Firm) after its completion. In such case, our engagement will end once we are no longer clearly and actively engaged in such matter(s), and in any event when no amounts have been invoiced by us for our services rendered to you in the immediately preceding 6 (six) months.

SUBSEQUENT SERVICES

We are pleased that you have selected the Firm to act as your patent counsel and we look forward to the opportunity to represent you in any subsequent matters confirmed by the Firm in writing. We shall place all such amounts as a credit on account and apply them against our fees for services rendered. We shall duly raise an invoice for all work completed by the Firm on behalf of the Client, and the same shall be settled by appropriation against the credit on account to the extent available, and any amount invoiced in excess of such credit shall be payable in accordance with the payment terms of the Engagement Letter; the mere intimation of an invoice shall not by itself be deemed to constitute payment of any amount not so covered, and nothing herein shall prejudice the Client's right to raise a bona fide query in respect of any invoice. In the event that we are not required to complete the services in respect of which such advance payments have been made by you, we shall refund to the Client all amounts remaining after having deducted the fees payable for the services already performed by us. We take all reasonable measures to ensure that such information is safeguarded and not disclosed to any third party without your prior written consent, except where we are required to do so by any applicable law, any professional rules or guidelines applicable to us, or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction. However, nothing contained in these Terms of Engagement, or the Engagement Letter, shall preclude us from disclosing such information to our employees, agents, advisors, and contractors who are bound by confidentiality obligations and have a need to know such information in order for us to effectively render our services. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure that all documents of the Client are kept confidential, and we will use such information for the sole purpose of rendering intellectual-property services to the Client.

The Client agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Firm from and against all actions, claims, liabilities, damages, costs and expenses incurred by us in connection with our engagement as your representatives that may be directly attributable to information or documents provided to the Firm by the Client, save to the extent such actions, claims, liabilities, damages, costs or expenses arise from the Firm's own negligence, wilful misconduct, or breach of this engagement. However, we agree and acknowledge that you will not be responsible for any claims, actions, liabilities, damages, losses, or expenses which are judicially determined to have resulted directly from our gross negligence or wilful misconduct. The total liability of the Firm arising out of, or in connection with, this engagement, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise, shall in no event exceed the professional fees actually received by the Firm from the Client in respect of the engagement during the twelve (12) months preceding the event giving rise to such liability. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this limitation of liability shall not apply to any liability arising from the Firm's gross negligence, wilful misconduct, fraud, or breach of its confidentiality obligations.
